UMR-ACUHO William B. Sweet Distinguished Service Award

The William B. Sweet Distinguished Service Award is UMR-ACUHO's most prestigious award. The nominee should represent a standard of excellence through contributions and dedication to the regional and international housing association and profession. The nominee's service should leave a positive and lasting impact, and they should be viewed as a role model for colleagues and new professionals.

Qualifications:

- Nominees do not have to work directly in college student housing, but must have had a significant impact on the student housing profession.
- Significant contributions to UMR-ACUHO, ACUHO-I, and the college housing profession.
- Nominees must work or have worked within the UMR-ACUHO region.
- Current UMR-ACUHO Executive Committee members are not eligible.

Nominations:

- Nomination form
- Three letters of support by September 21, 2018

UMR-ACUHO Robert E. Mosier Professional Enrichment Award

This award recognizes an individual in the Upper Midwest Region who has made outstanding contributions to the professional development of their colleagues in college student housing. The nominee should have established a record of involvement in professional enrichment opportunities on their own campus, within UMR-ACUHO, and within other professional organizations at the state, regional or national level.

In particular, the achievements evaluated should be a reflection of the individual's commitment to enhancing the skills, knowledge, or motivation of fellow professionals. Conference presentations, research, writing for publication, classroom instruction, and workshop/conference planning are some examples of possible achievements.

Qualifications:

- Nominees must be currently employed at a UMR-ACUHO member institution.
- Current UMR-ACUHO Executive Committee members are not eligible.

Nominations:

- Nomination form
- Three letters of support by September 21, 2018

UMR-ACUHO Outstanding New Professional Awards

The UMR-ACUHO Outstanding New Professional Award is awarded in the Master's and Bachelor's categories. These two awards recognize an individual in the Upper Midwest Region who displays outstanding ability and potential as a new professional in college student housing.

Qualifications:

- For the Bachelor's Category, individuals must have no more than three years full - or part - time experience in housing after attaining a Bachelor's degree.
- For the Master's Category, individuals must have no more than three years full time experience in housing after attaining a Master's degree.
- Currently be employed at least one-half (50%) time in a college student-housing program.
- Nominees should have displayed creativity in problem solving, a commitment to their own professional development, and have sought to improve skills and knowledge of colleagues, paraprofessional staff or residents. In addition, they will be evaluated for the contributions they have made at their institution(s); within their surrounding community; and at state, regional or national association levels.
- Nominees must be currently employed at a UMR-ACUHO member institution.
- Current UMR-ACUHO Executive Committee members are not eligible.

Master's Category:

- Nominee must have an earned Master's degree.

Bachelor's Category:

- Highest degree attained by the nominee must be a Bachelor's degree.

Nominations:

- Nomination form
- Copy of the nominee's resume
- Three letters of support by September 21, 2018

UMR-ACUHO Support Staff Recognition Award

The Support Staff Recognition Award is designed to show appreciation to support staff members on our campuses (i.e., building service worker/custodian, administrative assistant/secretary, dining/food service employee, etc.). Every campus has deserving individuals who should be recognized for their outstanding contributions to the student housing community.

Qualifications:

- Nominees must be currently employed at a UMR-ACUHO member institution.
- Nominees cannot be in a professional or paraprofessional staff position.

Nominations:

- The nomination form must be submitted by September 21, 2018
- Only one nomination per member institution will be considered.
